

EMBRAER GLOBAL ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

1. STATEMENT OF POLICY

The Embraer Global Anti-Corruption Policy (the “Policy”) commits Embraer S.A. and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, “Embraer” or the “Company”) in all operations throughout the world to conducting business ethically and with the utmost integrity. The Policy requires compliance with Embraer’s Code of Ethics and Conduct (“Code of Ethics”) and all relevant laws and regulations against bribery and corruption including, but not limited to, the laws of Brazil, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (“FCPA”), the U.K. Bribery Act (“UKBA”), and other applicable national anti-bribery statutes and implementing rules and regulations.

The Policy also reflects Embraer’s commitment to adhering to the relevant standards set forth in the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Government Officials in International Business Transactions (“OECD Convention”), the United Nations Convention Against Corruption (“UNCAC”), the United Nations Global Compact, and the Inter-American Convention Against Corruption. Furthermore, it is Embraer’s policy that all Third-Party Intermediaries (as defined in Section 4.2.4., below) and other business partners it engages comply with the same laws, regulations, standards, and ethical business practices, as detailed in Embraer’s Business Partner Compliance Due Diligence Procedure (“Business Partner Due Diligence Procedure”).

The Policy specifically prohibits Embraer’s directors, officers, managers, and employees (collectively, “Employees”), and all “Third-Party Intermediaries” (as defined in Section 4.2.4) retained by the Company from engaging in any corrupt activity and directly or indirectly offering, promising, providing, or authorizing anyone to provide money or “Anything of Value” (as defined in Section 4.2.2) to a “Government Official” (as defined in Section 4.2.1) or any private individual or entity for the purpose of obtaining or retaining any “Improper Advantage” (as defined in Section 4.2.3.).

Accordingly, as a company committed to compliance and the highest ethical standards, Embraer expects all Employees and Third-Party Intermediaries to comply with this Policy, all associated procedures, the Code of Ethics, and all Brazil, U.S, U.K., and other applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations. Embraer will not authorize or tolerate any business practice that does not comply with this Policy. Additionally, all Employees are required to review their respective business practices on a periodic basis and, if inconsistent with this Policy in any way, work with the Embraer Compliance Department (“Compliance Department”) to make the appropriate practice adjustments to ensure compliance.

This Policy is not designed to provide answers to all issues and considerations pertaining to bribery and related matters that may arise in the course of the Company’s business. Also, the examples provided in the Policy are intended to help the reader understand the subject matter and the critical importance of compliance; they do not reflect an exhaustive list of circumstances covered by the Policy. Therefore, whenever there is any uncertainty about whether this Policy applies, or if you have any questions or suspicions about the propriety of any conduct, you must promptly seek advice from the Compliance Department. The Compliance Department can be contacted through the email address referenced at the end of this Policy.

All Employees, as well as all Embraer business partners, are expected to become familiar with, and comply with, this Policy, and to recognize and report potential anti-corruption compliance-related issues in time for them to be appropriately addressed by the Compliance Department.

2. OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this Policy is to outline and explain the prohibitions against bribery and corruption in all of the Company's operations, to highlight the specific compliance requirements relating to these prohibitions, and to reinforce Embraer's commitment to conduct business globally with the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

As a global company, Embraer must comply with the anti-bribery and corruption laws and regulations of every country in which it operates. Moreover, in addition to the applicable Brazilian anti-corruption laws, as a company registered in the U.S. market, Embraer is subject to the requirements of the FCPA. Both laws prohibit the payment of bribes and other illegal payments to foreign Government Officials anywhere in the world. Violating these laws or any other applicable anti-corruption laws potentially exposes Embraer and any Employees and/or Third-Party Intermediaries involved (regardless of nationality or location of residence) to significant criminal, civil, and/or administrative liability, and related fines and/or penalties.

This Policy should be read in conjunction with the Code of Ethics and related policies and procedures. In the event of a conflict between this Policy and other Embraer policies, or in a situation where the provisions of this Policy are more specific than the Code of Ethics or other policies, Employees must apply the more restrictive policy or procedure. In such a circumstance, please notify the Compliance Department so that it can promptly address the conflict, advise you about any appropriate steps to take and, if necessary, update the relevant policy or procedure.

3. APPLICATION

This Policy applies to all of Embraer, including the Company's international operations and any business activities managed or conducted on Embraer's behalf by Third-Party Intermediaries, including joint ventures. Every Employee (as defined above) is required to become familiar with, and abide by, this Policy. The Policy also applies to the Company's affiliates, direct or indirect subsidiaries to which the Code of Ethics applies, and agents, representatives, consultants, independent contractors, and other Third-Party Intermediaries engaged by the Company.

Any Embraer subsidiaries not covered by the Code of Ethics must also adhere to the principles expressed in this Policy. The Compliance Department will collaborate with such subsidiaries to ensure that they promptly adopt policies and procedures that promote the same standards, principles, and objectives advanced by this Policy.

4. PROHIBITED AND RESTRICTED PAYMENTS

This Policy prohibits:

- the offer, promise, authorization, or payment of money or Anything of Value, either directly, or indirectly through a Third-Party Intermediary, to a Government Official or private individual or entity, in order to secure an Improper Advantage.

Importantly, key anti-bribery statutes, including Brazilian anti-corruption laws and the FCPA, prohibit these payments of money or Anything of Value whether they are made directly or indirectly through Third-Party Intermediaries.

Please Note: Even the offer of money or Anything of Value in the manner described above is prohibited, regardless of whether the money or item of value is accepted by the intended recipient.

4.1. TYPES OF BRIBERY

EMBRAER GLOBAL ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

4.1.1. BRIBERY OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

Under this Policy, offering, giving, promising, or authorizing the offering, giving, or promise, of money or Anything of Value, to a Government Official, directly or indirectly, in order to obtain an Improper Advantage, qualifies as bribery.

4.1.2. PRIVATE SECTOR (COMMERCIAL) BRIBERY

Embraer also prohibits bribery in the private sector. Accordingly, no Employee may offer, give, promise, or receive money, or Anything of Value, to or from an individual or entity in the private sector, in order to obtain an Improper Advantage.

Please Note: Family members of any of the individuals listed above may also qualify as Government Officials if Employee or Third-Party Intermediary interactions with them are intended or have the effect of conferring Anything of Value on a Government Official. Any questions relating to whether an individual or an entity is a Government Official should be directed to the Compliance Department.

4.2.2. The term “Anything of Value” is broad and can include any item of monetary value, including, but not limited to, the following:

This definition includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Any individual or entity used for obtaining and/or retaining business, such as agents, advisors, consultants, subcontractors, sales representatives, and joint venture partners;

EMBRAER GLOBAL ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

- Any small or nominal payment made to a Government Official, typically to speed up and/or secure the performance of a non-discretionary “routine governmental action.” Such payments are prohibited by the Company (as discussed below in Section 6 of the Policy).

 1. Obtaining permits, licenses, or other official documents to qualify a person or entity to do business in a foreign country;
 2. Processing governmental papers, such as visas and work orders;
 3. Providing police protection, mail pick-up and delivery, or scheduling inspections;
 4. Providing phone service, power and water supply, loading cargo, or protecting goods from deterioration; or
 5. Actions of a similar nature.

5. PROCEDURES

5.1. GUIDELINES FOR PERMISSIBLE PAYMENTS

This Policy permits Employees to provide modest gifts, meals, entertainment (collectively, “Hospitality”), travel benefits, or other things of value to Government Officials and private individuals, as long as the provision of such items is legal and directly related to:

- The promotion or demonstration of Embraer’s products and services; or
- The performance of a particular Embraer contract with a government or state-owned or state-operated entity.

Below are Embraer’s requirements under this Policy with respect to the circumstances by which certain things of value may be provided.

5.1.1. GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY (INCLUDES MEALS AND ENTERTAINMENT)

Embraer’s business decisions and those of its partners must be made objectively, without influence by gifts or favors. A small, reasonably priced gift or gesture of respect or gratitude may sometimes be an appropriate way for business people to display respect for each other. Nevertheless, regardless of value, the giving or receipt of a gift, meal, entertainment, or other hospitality benefit must not be done with the intent to improperly influence a Government Official or any other party doing business with Embraer.

Accordingly, under certain limited circumstances, Embraer allows for the provision of gifts, meals, entertainment, Embraer promotional items, and other items of nominal value, to Government Officials or any other party doing business with Embraer. Before providing any gift, meal, entertainment offering, or other hospitality benefit, review the Code of Ethics and the detailed guidance provided in Embraer’s applicable policies and procedures. Please direct any questions about gifts and hospitality to the Compliance Department.

Requirements for any Gift or Hospitality Benefit

EMBRAER GLOBAL ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

- It is not made with the intent to influence the recipient in order to obtain or retain any improper business advantage for Embraer or any other individual or entity, or as an explicit or implicit exchange for favors or benefits, or for any other corrupt purpose;
- It is not given to a Government Official, commercial entity, or related individual when an Embraer contract or regulatory decision is pending with that official, entity, or individual;
- It does not include cash or a cash equivalent (such as gift certificates or vouchers);
- It is not lavish or extravagant – rather, it must be of reasonable/modest value (e.g., insignificant compared with average local salaries);
- It is provided (or received) on an infrequent basis -- no more than four (4) times per 12-month period, with each individual gift, meal, entertainment offering, or other hospitality benefit counting as one (1) time for purposes of the frequency limitation;
- It does not include expenses for any of the recipient's relatives;
- It is provided openly and transparently;
- It is given in connection with the promotion, demonstration, or explanation of Company's products or services;
- It is in accordance with the local laws and culture of the country in which you are operating;
- It is fully documented and supported by receipts and corresponding paperwork; and
- It is timely and accurately recorded in Embraer's books and records.

5.1.2. TRAVEL, EDUCATION, AND RELATED EXPENSES

Embraer may receive requests to host Government Officials for training or other business related reasons, either at Embraer facilities, or at training opportunities sponsored by outside vendors. Embraer may also be asked to host Government Officials at operational meetings, project meetings, or other events. A request to pay the travel expenses of any Government Official, within or outside his or her home county, must be carefully reviewed to ensure consistency with this Policy and the applicable laws of the official's country.

Also, note that even where local laws may permit Embraer to pay a Government Official's expenses, there could be additional Brazil, U.S., U.K., or other legal requirements applicable to the handling, accounting, and reporting of such payments. These laws and regulations must be considered when planning Embraer-paid travel for any Government Official or private individual.

Before you provide any travel, education, or related expenses to Government Officials or private individuals, review the additional guidance in the Code of Ethics and Embraer's applicable policies and procedures. Please direct any questions about these expenses to the Compliance Department.

5.1.3. DONATIONS & SPONSORSHIPS

Embraer supports making contributions to the communities in which it does business and permits reasonable donations to charities. However, Embraer must always take reasonable steps to verify that any such contribution is not an illegal payment to a Government Official in violation of this Policy and any applicable anti-corruption laws or regulations.

EMBRAER GLOBAL ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

Donations and sponsorships are permitted, as long as they adhere strictly to internal procedures, the Embraer Bylaws, and any applicable laws and regulations in force, and cannot be used as a means to improperly influence business decisions. Embraer must be certain that donations and sponsorships are not used to promote illegal payments, and must confirm through adequate due diligence that the recipient charity does not act as a conduit to fund illegal activities in violation of this Policy or of any applicable anti-corruption laws or regulations.

Any Embraer Employee making a request for a charitable donation must submit appropriate supporting documentation so that it can be accurately recorded in Embraer's books and records. For purposes of this section, charitable contributions include money, services, and Anything of Value.

Before you provide any donation or sponsorship, review the additional guidance in the Code of Ethics and Embraer's donations and sponsorships policies and procedures. Please direct any questions about donations or sponsorships to the Compliance Department.

5.1.4. PROMOTIONS AND MARKETING

Embraer uses promotional and marketing activities as a means to conduct business. Marketing and promotional expenses involving public or private individuals may be allowed with appropriate approvals. If Government Officials or any other potential Embraer customers will be involved in the receipt of gifts, meals, entertainment, or expense reimbursement as part of a promotional activity, please observe this Policy and consult the Compliance Department for appropriate guidance.

Any approved expenses must be paid by Embraer directly to the provider, should be directly related to the promotion of Embraer or its products/services, and be properly documented and recorded.

5.1.5. POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

This Policy prohibits Embraer from making any political contribution, including any such contribution to a political party or candidate for political office, for or on the Company's behalf, without the authorization of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Code of Ethics, this Policy, and all applicable laws and regulations.

This Policy is not intended, however, to prevent Employees from participating in the political process in their home countries (or where they may be located), or from making personal political contributions. However, should they wish to do so, Employees may not represent that their own political contributions (or any related opinions or affiliations) are related in any way to Embraer.

Please direct any questions about political contributions to the Compliance Department.

5.1.6. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

All Employees must avoid conflicts of interest and are expected to perform their duties conscientiously, honestly, and in accordance with the best interests of Embraer. Employees must not abuse their position, misuse confidential knowledge for personal or Third-Party Intermediary gain, or have any direct involvement in any business in conflict with Embraer's commercial interests, or that in anyway compromises their independence and impartiality.

Additional guidance on the question of conflicts of interest is provided in the Code of Ethics.

5.1.7. MANDATORY DUE DILIGENCE FOR ENGAGING THIRD-PARTY INTERMEDIARIES AND OTHER BUSINESS PARTNERS

Embraer can be held liable for the actions of associated persons, agents, suppliers, consultants, contractors, and other business partners with whom it conducts business -- primarily Third-Party

EMBRAER GLOBAL ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

Intermediaries -- particularly where a Third-Party Intermediary is performing services or otherwise conducting dealings, discussions, or negotiations for or on behalf of Embraer with public or private organizations (and/or their officials, officers, or other employees).

Under applicable law, Embraer may be held responsible for the actions of such Third-Party Intermediaries in giving or accepting bribes, for example, and/or failing to take sufficient steps as a Company to prevent Third-Party Intermediaries from participating in bribery or related conduct, whether or not Embraer was actually aware of the alleged improper conduct.

Therefore, an Embraer Employee must never ask a Third-Party Intermediary to engage in (or condone) any conduct that the employee is prohibited from engaging in himself or herself under this Policy. Also, an Employee must never turn a “blind eye” to suspected violations of this Policy by Third-Party Intermediaries or disregard otherwise suspect circumstances. Any actual or suspected inappropriate conduct must be promptly reported to the Compliance Department.

All Third-Party Intermediaries conducting business with, for, or on behalf of Embraer are required to act with the highest level of business, professional, and legal integrity. Any Embraer employee seeking to establish a business relationship between Embraer and a Third-Party Intermediary must, prior to engaging the Third-Party Intermediary, carefully review and follow Embraer’s Business Partner Due Diligence Procedure.

While the amount of time and effort required for Third-Party Intermediary due diligence will depend on the number and complexity of the issues raised during the due diligence review and the particular country(ies) involved, the scope of a due diligence review should be sufficient to determine the compliance-related risks Embraer may face in conducting business with the prospective Intermediary or other business partner.

Generally speaking, the due diligence review should determine, among other things: (i) whether or not an individual proposing to serve the Company in exchange for payment is a “Government Official”; (ii) whether or not an entity employs a “Government Official” or is a company in which a “Government Official” has an ownership interest or serves on the board of directors; (iii) whether the services the individual or entity is being put forward to perform are necessary to further an existing business initiative or contract; (iv) whether the individual or entity has the expertise, experience, and other qualifications to perform the necessary services in a legitimate fashion; and (iv) whether or not the individual or entity is likely to engage in practices that could expose Embraer to liability.

Any issues or Red Flags (as discussed in Section 8) raised during the course of the due diligence review must be addressed to the satisfaction of the Compliance Department before formally entering into, or continuing, the relationship. If necessary, Embraer may engage the services of external vendors to research the ownership, expertise, experience, and other qualifications of the Third-Party Intermediary under consideration to perform under a proposed or existing agreement with Embraer.

Embraer’s due diligence efforts are conducted under the leadership of the Compliance Department in conjunction with the rules, guidance, and process described in the Company’s Business Partner Due Diligence Procedure. If you have any questions about the need for due diligence or how to properly perform your role in the due diligence process, please consult the Compliance Department.

Embraer is committed to undertaking appropriate and reasonable due diligence on the reputation and integrity of any business in which it invests. Accordingly, due diligence shall be undertaken with respect to mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures. Guidelines for appropriate due diligence with respect to these affiliations can be found in the Company’s applicable policies and procedures.

Finally, Embraer requires written agreements for all engagements with Third-Party Intermediaries and other business partners. In certain limited circumstances involving the acquisition of goods or services from a supplier (as described in the Company's Resolution DP-014), the written agreement may be in the form of a purchase order, which will include appropriate anti-corruption covenants.

6. FACILITATING PAYMENTS

The use of facilitating payments (as defined in Section 4.2.5), may be considered a customary way of doing business in some countries. It is, however, important to understand that such payments are prohibited by the anti-bribery laws of many countries, including Brazil and the U.K. (under the UKBA). Additionally, clients whose projects Embraer may be supporting might prohibit such payments. Furthermore, facilitating payments are generally illegal under the local laws of most countries worldwide. Based on the above, this Policy prohibits Employees or Third-Party Intermediaries from making facilitating payments on the Company's behalf.

7. BOOKS AND RECORDS, ACCOUNTING, AND PAYMENT PRACTICES

In compliance with applicable laws, it is Embraer's policy to maintain at all times accurate and reasonably detailed books and records that reflect Embraer's transactions. Compliance with this policy is regularly audited and subject to the Company's internal controls procedures. In reference to this instruction, the records of all payments made or received must accurately and properly reflect the transaction. Moreover the Company prohibits secret, unrecorded, or unreported transactions.

To ensure compliance with this Policy and relevant, applicable laws, it is essential that all Embraer business and financial records fairly and accurately reflect each transaction involving company business and/or the disposition of company assets. All expenses must be accurately accounted for, include appropriate supporting documentation, and be promptly entered into company records before they are reimbursed.

This includes, for example, the accurate identification (in expense reports and related business and financial records) of all payments to Third-Party Intermediaries acting for or on Embraer's behalf, as well as all charitable donations, gifts, meals, entertainment, or other hospitality involving Government Officials or private individuals or entities.

It is a violation of this Policy for any Employee or any Third-Party Intermediary to condone or knowingly disguise, falsify, or request reimbursement for any expense that does not meet the requirements of the Code of Ethics and this Policy.

Please Note: Approvals for any payments relating to the Company's business and financial engagements must be made in accordance with rules set out in Resolution DP-014.

8. RED FLAGS

While each proposed business transaction, engagement, or related payment must be evaluated on its specific facts, particular attention must be given to bribery and corruption-related "Red Flags." Red Flags will be deemed to exist whenever some fact or circumstance suggests that the particular transaction, relationship, or engagement involves a likely risk of bribery and/or corruption.

When a Red Flag is identified, careful consideration must be given to the steps that should be taken to mitigate or eliminate the bribery or corruption risk the particular relationship may present, including possible termination of the relationship.

The following are examples that may suggest non-compliance with this Policy, or represent common areas of corruption-related compliance risks. If you become aware of the existence of any of these circumstances, or are suspicious in any way relating to such circumstances, you should promptly inform the Compliance Department or report the concern through the Embraer Helpline.
